CHAPTER 967

An act to amend Sections 12132 and 12276.1 of the Penal Code, relating to weapons.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 2000. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 2000.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2351, Zettel. Weapons: manufacture, import, and sale.

(1) Existing law, commencing January 1, 2001, makes it a misdemeanor to manufacture or cause to be manufactured, import into the state for sale, keep for sale, offer or expose for sale, give, or lend any unsafe handgun, except as specified.

Existing law, commencing January 1, 2001, additionally requires every person licensed to manufacture firearms pursuant to federal law who manufactures firearms in this state and every person who imports into the state for sale, keeps for sale, or offers or exposes for sale any firearm to certify under penalty of perjury that every model, kind, class, style, or type of pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person that he or she manufactures or imports, keeps, or exposes for sale is not a prohibited unsafe handgun.

This bill would exempt from these requirements certain pistols that are used in official Olympic-style international shooting competition, as specified.

(2) Existing law defines the term "assault weapon" by, among other things, designating a list of specified semiautomatic firearms and providing descriptive definitions concerning the capacity and function of the weapon.

The bill additionally would specify that the definition of "assault weapon" does not include certain pistols that are used in official Olympic-style international shooting competition, as specified.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this bill to simplify the application of its provisions by the Department of Justice and to ensure that these provisions only have the effect of allowing access to, and use of, pistols for Olympic-style shooting, without affecting other pistols regulated under existing law.

SEC. 2. Section 12132 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12132. This chapter shall not apply to any of the following:

(a) The sale, loan, or transfer of any firearm pursuant to Section 12082 or 12084 in order to comply with subdivision (d) of Section 12072.

(b) The sale, loan, or transfer of any firearm that is exempt from the provisions of subdivision (d) of Section 12072 pursuant to any applicable exemption contained in Section 12078, if the sale, loan, or transfer complies with the requirements of that applicable exemption to subdivision (d) of Section 12072.

(c) The sale, loan, or transfer of any firearm as described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 12125.

(d) The delivery of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071 for the purposes of the service or repair of that firearm.

(e) The return of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071 to its owner where that firearm was initially delivered in the circumstance set forth in subdivision (d).

(f) The return of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by a person licensed pursuant to Section 12071 to its owner where that firearm was initially delivered to that licensee for the purpose of a consignment sale or as collateral for a pawnbroker loan.

(g) The sale, loan, or transfer of any pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person listed as a curio or relic, as defined in Section 178.11 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(h) (1) The Legislature finds a significant public purpose in exempting pistols that are designed expressly for use in Olympic target shooting events. Therefore, those pistols that are sanctioned by the International Olympic Committee and by USA Shooting, the national governing body for international shooting competition in the United States, and that are used for Olympic target shooting purposes at the time that the act adding this subdivision is enacted, and that fall within the definition of “unsafe handgun” pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 12126 shall be exempt, as provided in paragraph (2).
